<h2>Headlines</h2>	Share briefly. What's been good? What's been hard? What trials and temptations are you currently facing? How are you doing in the midst of these things? As we prepare to open the Scriptures together, where do you most need God to speak and act?
<h2>Discover</h2> What do you see?	What do you see in this text? What questions do you have? What answers can you find? What is God revealing to you here? Is there an attribute to adore, a truth to trust, a promise to hope in, a command to obey, a warning to heed, an example to follow? How does what he is revealing here connect to what he has revealed to us in the person and work of Jesus? Every verse in Scripture becomes good news when run through the cross of Christ. Let's preach the good news to ourselves once more.
<h2>Nurture</h2> What do you believe?	Do you believe the things God is revealing to you in this text? If there's an attribute, are you adoring? If there's a truth, are you trusting? If there's a promise, are you hoping? If there's a command, are you obeying? If there's a warning, are you heeding? If there's an example, are you following? Why or why not? What's in the way? How are these things being tested in what you are currently facing? How can Jesus come to your rescue? Let's make the good confession once more.
<h2>Apply</h2> What do you do?	What would this text look like walking out into the details of your life? Think again about what you are currently facing. If you adored, trusted, hoped in, obeyed, heeded, followed, how would it change your next 24 hours? Each day has enough trouble of its own. If this word from God can touch the next few hours, it will start to touch your life as a whole. Identify one thing you can do to apply this. Who else in your life (believer/unbeliever) might need to hear this? Let's bear the good fruit once more.
